

Kevin Mayer
01/24/2000 03:31 PM

To: Cornell.Long@brooks.af.mil
cc: Catherine McCracken/R9/USEPA/US@EPA
Fax to:
Subject: Re: question on Southern Colorado River site

Cornell

I found a set of rules and a contact for the Imperial Wildlife Refuge at:
<http://southwest.fws.gov/refuges/arizona/imperial.html>

The rules seem to say that it is forbidden to touch, molest, collect....plants or animals - except for game animals which it is apparently OK to shoot.

Mitchell Ellis, Manager Imperial Wildlife Refuge
P.O. Box 72217
Yuma, Arizona 85365
Phone: 520/783-3371
Fax: 520/783-0652
r2rw_imp@fws.gov

This office is the headquarters for the Lower Colorado River Complex, which includes Bill Williams River NWR, Cibola NWR, Imperial NWR, and Havasu NWR.:

Wes Martin, Lower Colorado River Complex Manager
c/o Bureau of Reclamation
P.O. Box D
Yuma, Arizona 85366
Phone: 520/343-8112
Fax: 520/343-8320
r2rw_lcr@fws.gov